THE LIFE AND TIMES OF A SOUTH AFRICAN SCULPTOR

Widely revered for his overwhelming heads and monumental african sculptures, evoking themes of suffering, reconciliation, glory and sublimation, his works grace public and private collections countrywide and internationally.

"Spoken verse, the echoes of emotive lyrics and the rasping of sculptures in progress are customary sounds emitted from his studio. Larger than life, Anton Smit is the embodiment of poetry, an apt term for this sculptor, derived from the term "making".

"Anton forms his own language through sculpture, the manifestation of his passion for expression and his profound faith." – Kathleen Thomas, Art Curator

"What distinguishes the creative person is his persistence and determination to excel." – Rhoma Ochse
